

Race, Gender and Sexualities Research Group Seminar Series 2020-21

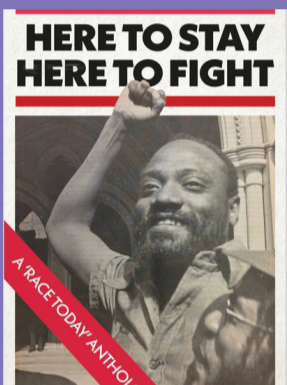

The US and China – towards a new Cold War?

Dr Adrian Budd,
4 November 2020, 3-4pm

Gendered Islamophobic Hate Crime

Dr Irene Zempi, Senior
Lecturer in Criminology,
Nottingham Trent
University, 25 November
2020, 4-5pm

Race Today and the Fight for Racial Justice between 1973 and 1988

Faroukh Dondy and Leila
Hassan, 2 December 2020

The supply of informal care and its significance for solutions to the elder- care crisis and its gender dimension

Dr Anne Gray, Visiting
Fellow, 24 February 2021,
3-4pm

Teaching slavery: Critical approaches to Britain's colonial past

Dr Kate Donington
24 March 2021, 3-4pm

Imperialism today: Marxist Value Theory and the US-China Rivalry

Dr Adrian Budd
28 April 2021, 3-4pm

Academics on Twitter

Dr Chris Magill
12 May 2021, 3-4pm

Slavery and the University:

An Investigation

Dr Sami Pinarbasi
2 June 2021, 3-4pm

Seminars are open to staff and students. The Race, Gender and Sexualities Research Group (RGSRG) is an interdisciplinary group and we focus on the different experiences of individuals and groups in society, both nationally and internationally, based on their race, gender and sexual orientation.

For further information contact:

Dr Shaminder Takhar LSSRGSResearch@lsbu.ac.uk

Follow us on Twitter@LSBU_RaceGender

EST 1892

LSBU

School of Law and Social Sciences