

London
South Bank University

EST 1892

LSS Crime and Justice Research Group

Seminar Series 2019/20

Professor Alex Vitale

Stop and Frisk in the US:
A Question of Justice

Wednesday 27 November
2019, 3.30pm,

Keyworth Centre, Room 205

Professor Peter Squires

Finding the Elusive Female Gun-Buyer: Gender, Rights and Consequences in US
Gun Politics

Wednesday 11 December
2019, 3.30pm

Keyworth Centre, Room 403

Dr Tirion Havard

Let's Talk about the Phones: Contextualising
Coercive Control

Wednesday 12 February
2020, 3.30pm

Location TBC

Anjelica Finnegan

Power and Control:
Pause's use of Long Acting Reversible Contraception in Supporting Women with Multiple Children in Care

Wednesday 4 March 2020,
3.30pm, Location TBC

Dr Federica Rossi

Emergence and transformation: The Cause of Victims of Terrorism in Italy

Wednesday 29 April 2020,
3.30pm

Location TBC

All Seminars are FREE to attend and open to
ALL staff and students.
No need to register.
Just turn up.

The Crime & Justice Research Group (CJRG) is a multi-disciplinary, cross-school, collaboration of academics interested in crime and criminal justice. Their main concern is to conduct research that makes a difference to the criminalised and/or marginalised in our society, particularly those who are already vulnerable or experiencing inequality.

You can follow us on Twitter @LSBU_Crime

For further information contact Dr Chris Magill, Research Group Lead, on magillc@lsbu.ac.uk